

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

MICHELLE FRACASSO AND JONATHAN SPITZER,

Plaintiffs,

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, et al.,

Defendants.

STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

07 CV 4649 (AKH)

WHEREAS , plaintiffs are seeking certain documents from defendants City of New York and Matthew Edelman-Winstead ("City defendants" or "defendants") in discovery in this action, documents which defendants deem confidential, and

WHEREAS, defendants object to the production of those documents unless appropriate protection for their confidentiality is assured,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the attorneys for plaintiff and defendants, as follows:

1. As used herein, "Confidential Materials" shall mean disciplinary records and personnel records (performance evaluations); and any other documents that the City defendants may in the future in good faith deem "confidential materials" pursuant to this Order because of privacy, law enforcement or governmental interests, except that such documents and information shall not be deemed "Confidential Materials" to the extent, and only to the extent, that they are (a) obtained by plaintiffs from sources other than City defendants, or (b) are otherwise publicly available.

2. The City defendants shall designate in good faith particular documents "Confidential Materials" by labeling such documents "Confidential" and/or by designating such documents by Bates number in a writing directed to plaintiffs' counsel. The City defendants shall have a reasonable time to inspect and designate as "Confidential Materials" documents sought by subpoena from third parties, and such documents, if produced to plaintiffs, shall be treated as "Confidential Materials" during such reasonable period. The City defendants reserve the right to designate any documents confidential pursuant to this agreement if necessary after production of such documents to the plaintiffs. If plaintiffs object to the designation of particular documents as "Confidential Materials," plaintiffs shall state such objection in writing to the City defendants, and the parties shall endeavor in good faith to resolve such objection. If such objection cannot be resolved, then City defendants shall, within ten (10) days of receiving plaintiffs' objections, move for an order approving such designation.

3. Plaintiffs' attorneys shall not use the Confidential Materials for any purpose other than for the preparation or presentation of this action.

4. Plaintiffs' attorneys shall not disclose the Confidential Materials to any person not a member of the staff of their law office, except under the following conditions:

a. Disclosure may be made only if necessary to the preparation or presentation of their cases in this action. The plaintiffs shall not disclose the documents or information contained therein to anyone other than their attorneys of record in this action, necessary to the preparation or presentation of their cases in this action.

b. Disclosure before trial may be made only to the parties, to an expert or experts who has or have been retained or specially employed by their attorneys in this action in anticipation of litigation or preparation for this action, to a witness at deposition, or to the Court. In the event a conflict arises between the parties as to whether plaintiffs and/or co-defendants may show the Confidential Materials to a potential deponent, or other person whom counsel reasonably believes may have knowledge of the information described or referred to in the Confidential Materials, plaintiffs and co-defendants agree not to do so until such time that the parties can obtain a ruling from the Court in this regard.

c. Before any disclosure is made to a person listed in subparagraph (b) above (other than to the Court), plaintiffs' attorneys shall provide each such person with a copy of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and such person shall consent in writing, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, not to use the Confidential Materials for any purpose other than in connection with the prosecution of this case and not to further disclose the Confidential Materials except in testimony taken in this case. The signed consent shall be retained by plaintiffs' attorneys and copies provided to counsel for City defendants.

5. Deposition testimony concerning any Confidential Materials that reveals the contents of such materials shall be deemed confidential, and the transcript of such testimony, together with any exhibits referred to therein, shall at City defendants' request to the reporter, be separately bound, with a cover page prominently marked "CONFIDENTIAL." Such portion of the transcript shall be deemed to be Confidential Materials within the meaning of this Stipulation and Protective Order.

6. If any paper which incorporates any Confidential Materials or reveals the contents thereof is filed in this Court, those portions of the papers shall be delivered to the Court enclosed in a sealed envelope bearing the caption of this action, an indication of the nature of the contents, and the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL

This envelope contains documents or information designated confidential pursuant to an order entered by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in the above-captioned action. This envelope shall not be opened or unsealed without the express direction of a judge of this Court, and its contents shall not be displayed or revealed except as the Court may order. This envelope and its contents shall at all times be maintained separate and apart from the publicly available files of this case.

7. If any party intends to file the Confidential Materials with the Court, in conjunction with a motion for summary judgment or otherwise, or intends to utilize any of the Confidential Materials at trial, the party seeking to do so must first present the Confidential Materials to the Court for a ruling on whether the Confidential Materials shall be filed under seal in accordance with paragraph "6" hereof.

8. Within 30 days after the termination of this case, including any appeals, the Confidential Materials, including all copies, and all nonconforming copies, notes, and other materials containing or referring to information derived therefrom, shall, upon City defendants' request, be returned to City defendants' attorneys or, upon their consent, destroyed, and all persons who possessed such materials shall verify their return or destruction by affidavit furnished to defendants' attorneys.

9. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed to limit defendants' use of the Confidential Materials in any manner.
